If you are hesitating about committing to a Bitless Bridle on account of its unfamiliarity, its cost, or some uncertainty as to whether it would work well for you or your horse, Bitless Equitation Ltd proposes the following;

If within 30 days you don't like it (improbable), return it to us and we will give you your money back. You will be responsible for postage and packing.

Please ensure any bridle you return is undamaged, clean and dry and that you include the original invoice. No questions will be asked, though if you cared to tell us why you were unable to get on with it, we would be interested.

If, on the other hand, you love the bridle (much more likely), and had purchased a synthetic bridle, but would now like to upgrade to a leather version, then return the synthetic bridle within 30 days and we will give you full credit for the synthetic bridle against the price of a leather one.

Please note that this warranty only applies to the Bitless Bridle
